

On behalf of the Professional Fraternity Staff and the selected Award Nomination Review Panel of the Professional Fraternity Association, we are pleased to announce the PFA's 2022 award honorees:

Career Achievement Award:	Melvin Miles (Tau Beta Sigma & Kappa Kappa Psi)
Outstanding Professional Program Award:	Stand for the Kids (Phi Delta Epsilon Medical Fraternity, Inc)
Outstanding Community Service Award:	Alpha Omega Chapter at Florida State University (Tau Beta Sigma)
Faculty Advisor Award of Excellence:	Francisca Maxwell (Mu Phi Epsilon)
Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award:	Joe Ashbee (Pi Sigma Epsilon)

The 2022 award winners were presented at the Convention in Kalamazoo, Michigan at the awards banquet luncheon on Saturday, September 10. The recipients of the individual awards were invited with their families to accept their award in person and say a few words about their award nomination and selection.

This year, PFA saw an increase in award nominations from previous years. All 2022 nominees and award winners should be proud of their accomplishments in the professional fraternity community. Congratulations to our 2022 PFA Award winners!

We are excited to see the PFA members again at next year's conference. Please save the date for the 2023 PFA Conference, September 7-9 in Albuquerque, New Mexico!
